

Your Journey MATTERS

PROFESSIONAL SPEAKER: DENNIS "DC" CAMPBELL

The examination of your journey to understand how your lens came to be, and asking about others journey allows you to develop a heightened self-awareness and better understanding of one another's lens..

How we see the world ... Our lens was shaped by our respective journeys. This matters when it comes to communication with others, judgments, opinions, biases.

"The Big idea...everyone's journey matters and has value" for building relationships and advancing your ideas and business success.
